WARLORD OF MARS

Dejah Thoris

The chance discovery of my uncle John Carter's lost manuscripts lead to the publication of the tale underway. Following is a summary of events thus far.

400 years before Carter arrived on Mars, the twin cities of Helium were divided against each other. The unscrupulous Jeddak of Yorn encouraged the rivalry for his own gain.

Tardos Mors, jed of Lesser Helium, had Greater Helium at his mercy when Yorn intervened, announcing Dejah Thoris, Mors's granddaughter, would marry Yorn's son, Valian Dor.

The wedding was a ploy. Yorn's true purpose was to take possession of an anthropoid war machine of devastating power buried beneath Lesser Helium. He seized Dejah Thoris and the jeds of both Heliums during the engagement feast.

Valian was not a party to the deception. He freed Dejah Thoris, who in turn freed her father and grandfather. They escaped from Yorn with their former enemy, the Jed of Greater Helium.

A horde of green Martians surrounded Yorn, who found himself permanently bonded with the mysterious Colossus. The Yorn-Colossus destroyed the green horde.

Greater and Lesser Helium convened their allies in an attempt to raise a force against Yorn. The Colossus ambushed the secret gathering, uniting Helium's skeptical friends.

Dejah Thoris rescued Valian from his father's men as the allies gathered their navies. Valian created two marvelous devices to defeat the Colossus: a "brainwave jammer" and a winged harness that will allow Dejah to fly.

The allies have set out to destroy Yorn, but there is a spy in their midst...

E. R. B.*

WARLORD OF MARS

Dejah Thoris

The chance discovery of a lost manuscript by my uncle, John Carter, lead to the publication of the tale currently underway. No doubt a summary of the events thus far will be of great benefit to the reader.

400 years before Carter arrived on Mars, the twin cities of Helium were in a predicament of constant and bitter warfare with one another. The unscrupulous Jeddak of Yorn, their common overlord, encouraged the animosity for his own benefit.

Tardos Mors, jed of Lesser Helium, had Greater Helium at his mercy when Yorn intervened, preventing the long-hoped for victory. Yorn announced Dejah Thoris, Mors's granddaughter, would marry Yorn's son, Valian Dor.

But the wedding was a lie to catch Greater and Lesser Helium off guard. Yorn seized Dejah Thoris and the jeds of both Heliums during the engagement feast. Valian, Yorn's son, was not a party to the deception.

The motive for Yorn's betrayal seems to involve a titanic, humanoid machine of unknown purpose and design buried deep within the catacombs of Lesser Helium.

*Yours sincerely,
Edgar Rice Burroughs*
